1. Concerning Item I

Basis of the opinion

D1: WO 01/86948 A (KONINKL PHILIPS ELECTRONICS NV) 15 November 2001
(2001-11-15)

2. Concerning Item V

Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

The present invention relates to a system for integration in a home network (i.e. a module) according to independent claim 1.

In the document cited in the International Search Report and considered as the closest prior art (D1: WO 01/86948, 15.11.2001), a system for data management in a home network is disclosed.

The problem solved by the present invention is regarded as how to broaden the range of information the user of a home network has access to. The solution to said problem is that the search units contained in the module of claim 1 allow the user to search for the availability of specific data at the providers. Then, the user is not only able to choose data items from a limited amount (i.e. a list) of data items available, but he or she can specify a data item to be found.

The method according to claim 1 differs from that of D1 in that in D1 it is disclosed that the user is able to browse a previously compiled and categorized collection of content information available, even in a customized way, according to his or her preferences.

Therefore, the skilled person would not be prompted to derive a system according to independent claim 1 from D1. Thus, claim 1 is considered to be new and to involve an inventive step, Articles 33 (2) and (3) PCT.

As claims 2 to 12 are dependent on claim 1, said claims 2 to 12 do also meet the requirements of Article 33 (2) and (3) PCT.

The present invention is susceptible of industrial application, Article 33 (4) PCT.
